SLA And POHA

by MiaQc

Summary

A short story with two fictional fanfiction archives.
Safer Labyrinth Archive and Pink Orchid Heart Archive are great friends.

- A translation of SLA et POHA by MiaQc

A new fanfiction archive, Safer Labyrinth Archive, has recently been created. Although she keeps a low profile on the Net, and her fans find her name strange, Safer Labyrinth Archive – or SLA – is finding her writers’ audience.

SLA didn't want to become super-popular like Pink Orchid Heart Archive, another fanfic archive that has things in common with her.

POHA has a pink, red and purple theme like her. POHA prohibits certain types of explicit fanfics like her. Pink Orchid Heart Archive began as a one-person operation before becoming a dedicated team for fans. Safer Labyrinth Archive is run by a single person. Both archives only accept fan works in English, although Pink Orchid Heart Archive plans to open up to other languages in the future.

Despite all this, SLA and POHA are great friends. When they're not busy, they take on the shape of mythical creatures and do activities together. Building a sandcastle, doing a 3D puzzle, walking on the beach, in the forest and so on. Safer Labyrinth Archive becomes a Minotaur, Pink Orchid Heart Archive a Unicorn.

The fanfiction archives even use these creatures as mascots! A rainbow Unicorn with a pink horn. A Minotaur with purple and red fur. Fanart and fanfics of these characters have begun to appear on the Net. There's even a “Unicorn O. Heart/Minotaur S. Labyrinth” shipping!

This always makes SLA and POHA laugh. They'll always be friends but they wonder when the “Pink Orchid Heart Archive/Safer Labyrinth Archive” or “POHA/SLA” or “LA POHAS” shipping will arrive. Because it will. It's just a matter of time.
